SOUND RIPPLES

MEMBERSHIP COMMUNICATOR: SEPTEMBER 2005

When the days suddenly start to cool, we know that Fall has arrived! If you are interested in learning something new, or would like to get involved with activities at CHHA-NL, please read on! As always, feel free to contact our office at 753-3224 or at our new toll-free number with any questions on hearing or hearing loss.

CHHA-NL introduces a Toll-Free Line! 1-888-753-3224

As part of our association's commitment to reach people throughout the Province, we have added a toll-free telephone line. People living outside the St. John's area with questions on hearing & hearing loss may use this telephone number to call us, free of charge.

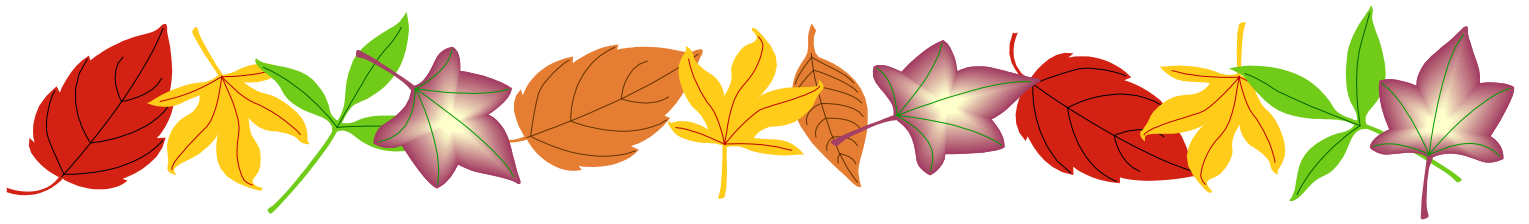

Speech Reading & Coping Skills for Hearing Loss Classes

We are now taking registration for Speech Reading Level 1 and Level 2. These classes are free and involve a 2 hour class each week over a period of 10 weeks. Classes take place in our office in the Viking Building, St, John's.

Everyone is Welcome!

If you are interested in either of these classes, please contact our office at 753-3224 or 1-888-753-3224

PLAN (Planned Lifetime Advocacy Network) is “committed to making it easier for families to secure a good life for their relatives with disabilities”. The Disability Savings Plan is a new program in development that will allow parents of disabled children to provide financial security for their children when they die. For more information on PLAN, or to join the mailing list, see the PLAN contact information below.

Interested in Volunteering?

Why not spend a few hours a week with us? Volunteers are our most valuable resource - whether you are interested in volunteering 2 hours per month, or 30 hours per week, CHHA-NL appreciates its volunteers.

If you would like more information on volunteering with CHHA-NL, please contact Alison at 753-3952 or a.day@nf.aibn.com

Are you a hard of hearing senior?

We are forming a group for seniors and will be planning a social in the upcoming months. If you are interested in joining our seniors group, please contact our office at 753-3224 and we will put your name on a list to receive information on upcoming events for seniors.
